

08 June, 2016

Australian Securities Exchange
For immediate release
By electronic transmission

MSP APPOINTS CHRIS FERGUS AS AN EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

MaxSec Group Limited (ASX: MSP), today announced that Christopher Fergus, ex-G4S (LSE: GFS) Regional Managing Director has been appointed to the Board of Directors as an Executive Director. Chris will continue to lead Business Development and Strategy and has recently been appointed Chief Executive Officer of our newly established division, AVA Global (AVA).

AVA has recently recruited a world class management team and launched its International Valuables Logistics (IVL) services, in New York, Singapore, London and Frankfurt.

Chris is based in Dubai and is a UK national. He has worked for the FTSE 100 and world's leading security services provider, G4S, for over 20 years. Joining the company as a graduate trainee in 1994, he has since worked across a number of continents, most recently as Regional Managing Director, Middle East, managing a portfolio of Security & FM joint ventures, with a total revenue in excess of USD 1bn. Chris has extensive experience of the security integration and services sectors, including the IVL sector, having previously led the global IVL division within G4S, based in both New York & London.

- ENDS -

For more information, contact:

Geoffrey Cleaves
CEO, Director & Company Secretary ceo@maxsec.com
+61 2 8817 2800

About MaxSec Group Limited

MaxSec Group Limited, has two business divisions within the security industry. BQT Solutions is a leading designer, developer and global provider of quality, reliable, secure smart card and reader systems, biometric scanners, electronic locking and other security products. AVA Global has been recently established and has launched its international valuables logistics services.

For more information, visit our website at www.maxsec.com.